16552. Misbranding of flaxseed menthol wild cherry cough syrup. U. S. v. 6 Dozen Bottles of Flaxseed Menthol Wild Cherry Cough Syrup. Default decree of condemnation, forfeiture, and destruction. (F. & D. No. 23499. I. S. No. 02596. S. No. 1618.)

On March 8, 1929, the United States attorney for the District of Maine, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the District Court of the United States for said district a libel praying seizure and condemnation of 6 dozen bottles of flaxseed menthol wild cherry cough syrup, remaining in the original unbroken packages at Portland, Me., consigned by Hance Bros. & White (Inc.), Philadelphia, Pa., alleging that the article had been shipped from Philadelphia, Pa., on or about November 16, 1928, and transported from the State of Pennsylvania into the State of Maine, and charging misbranding in violation of the food and drugs act as amended.

Analysis of a sample of the article by this department showed that it contained benzoic acid, menthol, glycerin, sugar, alcohol (1.6 per cent), and water, and was colored with a coal-tar dye.

It was alleged in the libel that the statement "Flaxseed Menthol Wild Cherry Cough Syrup," borne on the bottle label and carton, was false and misleading. Misbranding was alleged for the further reason that the package containing the article failed to bear a statement on the label of the quantity or proportion of alcohol contained therein. Misbranding was alleged for the further reason that the following statements regarding the curative and therapeutic effects of the article, (bottle label) "For All Affections Of Throat and Air Passages, such as Acute and Chronic Coughs * * * Bronchitis, Croup, Hoarseness and Whooping Cough," (carton) "Relieves Cough * * * Whooping Cough and La Grippe * * * reducing the inflammations * * * Relieving Hoarseness and Bronchitis," were false and fraudulent in that the article contained no ingredient or combination of ingredients capable of producing the effects claimed.

On April 2, 1929, no claimant having appeared for the property, judgment of condemnation and forfeiture was entered, and it was ordered by the court that the product be destroyed by the United States marshal.
